ADL: • I can NOT sit down for a long time. After about 20 minutes my legs get numb, tingling, cold, my lower back hurts and my neck started to bother me as well on 2006.

• I only sit down to eat, drive and take a few breaks when I am standing for a long time.

• I minimized my sitting time since I went on disability and feel MUCH BETTER health wise.

• I marked 1 on all the boxes of ADL question, BUT when my back is hurting or I am having a back crisis I have to spend several days in bed lying my lower back until I am able to move again.

Page 2 C: • Dr. Levandowski, Dr. Cooke, and Dr. Wisneski used to work together in the same group.
